Georgia Performance Standards Task for English Language Arts – GRADE 2

Grade: 2
Title: End of Writing Composition

Task Annotation:
At the end of the unit, the teacher will need to assess the students' knowledge and application of the writing standard. The teacher will assess the following elements within the students' end of unit products:

1. Did the student write a text that was of a length to tell a story?
2. Did the student write his/her story with an organized structure?
3. Did the student use transition words in his/her story?
4. Did the student use a variety of pronouns in his/her story?
5. Did the student use appropriate spelling?
6. Did the student use appropriate capitalization and punctuation?

Focus Standard:
ELA2W1 The student demonstrates competency in the writing process. The student:

a. Writes text of a length appropriate to address a topic and tell the story.
b. Uses traditional organizational patterns for conveying information (e.g., chronological order, similarity and difference, answering questions).
c. Uses transition words and phrases.
j. Rereads writing to self and others, revises to add details and edits to make corrections.
o. Uses singular and plural personal pronouns.
q. Uses common rules of spelling.
r. Uses appropriate capitalization and punctuation (periods, question and exclamation marks) at the end of sentences (declarative, interrogative, and exclamatory/ simple and compound).

Task:
Students will choose a narrative story from their writing folder. Throughout the Narrative Writing Unit, the students have been working on personal narratives. The students will need to choose their best narrative that may contain all or some of the elements that have been taught. An example of those elements are: organized structure, having enough details, correct use of a variety of pronouns, dialogue, transition words, etc.

Students will revise their narrative using the attached checklist. Students will self-evaluate their pieces based on their narrative rubric constructed through the unit. A sample is included with this task (This rubric is a sample. This rubric can be changed to fit the needs of an individual class.) Students may have peer conferences or student-teacher conferences.

Students will apply second grade conventions to their piece of writing through the editing process. Students may have peer conferences or student-teacher conferences.
Students will publish their narratives.

Students will practice using appropriate speaking and listening skills to prepare for presenting their published piece author's celebration. Self-assessment sheet is provided for appropriate speaking and listening skills.
